

Artbody, Inc. of South Florida has been hired by Extreme Stunt and Driving of Orlando Florida (www.extremestunt.com) for national print campaign. The first 60 days have proven successful with 4 top publications slated for Extreme news stand release over the next three months.

EXTREME, know for their work in 2 Fast 2 Furious and Bad Boys 2, has committed more than $1,000,000 to Artbody for promotion of individual team members as well as overall EXTREME advertising. Artbody, Inc. plans to launch a South Florida media blitz in the upcoming months in conjunction with the national release of EXTREME features in Makes and Models Magazine, Prime Media's ATV Rider Magazine and a top National Men's Magazine (TBA) in October, November, and December.

(PRWEB) September 12, 2004 -- Artbody, Inc. of South Florida (www.artbodymagazine.com) has signed on with Extreme Stunt and Driving in Orlando, Florida to develop a national print media campaign including magazines, news magazines, calendars, posters, and advertisements. Spokesperson for Artbody, Inc., Tom Kelly, stated that "We are going to town with EXTREME. Their professionalism coupled with their unrivaled talent makes our job easy in terms of selling them to the media. My biggest problem, however, is nailing them down when I need to photograph or interview them—they're always jumping off of buildings or dangling from wires, or driving some big rig."

Artbody, Inc. is a full service marketing and promotions company geared towards small businesses and performers. Full services include photography, press coverage, magazine submission, event development, radio and television appearances and more. Tom Kelly's edgy photography provides a unique and creative style which has helped Artbody, Inc. capture international attention with exposure in magazines such as Makes and Models Magazine, Oyster Fashion (AU), AVNONLINE, City Smart Magazine, and dozens more.
