(PRWEB) September 30, 2004 -- It seems like the only debating going on that night was about who was getting to sit on the TRIMSPA OCC Chopper first! The winner by a long shot was none other than The Rev. Al Sharpton, who got his chance to sit on the chopper at the Democratic National Committee's eighth fundraiser at South Beach's Mansion nightclub.

John Kerry's daughters Alexandra and Vanessa Kerry, his stepson Andre Heinz and John Edwards' daughter Cate Edwards hosted the event that was targeted to reach young voters and about 2,500 partygoers. The event was an early evening soiree where noted guests DNC Chairman Terry McAuliffe and Congressman Kendrick Meek rocked to the live performance by the Black Eyed Peas.

“What a great event,” said Alex Goen, founder and CEO of TRIMSPA. “This fundraiser was one of a kind and I’m so happy that TRIMSPA could take part of it.”

Landing on numerous red carpets and serving as eye candy at celebrity and public events, the TRIMSPA Orange County Chopper “Race Bike”, featured in the Discovery Channel program American Chopper, is one of the company's most requested attraction devices as well as one of the most photographed bikes in the world. Attracting everyone from motorcycle aficionados and passers-by to photographers and A-List celebs, the stars are not the only ones wearing bling-bling these days.

The Race Bike features chrome, diamond plate-bottomed gas and oil tanks and a rear diamond-cut motor with a 5-inch main drive belt. Sitting atop the 160+ horsepower custom-made chopper are some of the hottest celebrities and the biggest names in the entertainment industry today.
