

Urgent Help Needed From Any Bikers Who Want To Be Part of a World Record

We are attempting to break the world record for the largest gathering of Santa's on motorcycles.

(PRWEB) October 21, 2004 -- Depending on whether you are a fan of Christmas or not, the festive season may be a little too close for comfort, but the Record Breakers organisation is getting into the spirit of things by appealing for fun bikers to help create a new world record for the largest gathering of Santas on motorbikes!

The record attempt will be held at Silverstone race circuit on 5 December, and will raise money for Antics, a registered charity that supports children who have or are affected by cancer.

The current record is held by a gathering of Portuguese Santas, and stands at 5460. The mark has been challenged before by the UK, but fell a couple of thousand Santas short. However, Record Breakers remains undeterred, and is now seeking 10,000 bikers to help smash the record. All it asks is that challengers raise Â£99 in sponsorship - the equivalent of asking ten friends for backing at Â£10 apiece.

So, if you have a bike and want to help a very worthy cause, the organisations asks that you book your place in the record breaking line-up by calling on 0870 224 2245 or visiting www.recordbreakers.co.uk.
