

Savings of 30% on Texas Car Insurance Drive Texas Wasatch Expansion into Commercial Insurance Market

Texas Wasatch Insurance, a leading provider of homeowners and car insurance in Texas, will be adding commercial insurance to its line of products for Texas, Pennsylvania, and Virginia in November.

(PRWEB) November 1, 2004 -- Texas Wasatch Insurance is pleased to announce that in November it will expand its product line to include commercial insurance in Texas, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Mark E. Jones, Texas Wasatch Group CEO, explains, "Our core Texas car insurance business continues to grow very rapidly. We have a great team and a great set of insurance company partners to work with. Our combined efforts have saved our new clients an average of over 30% annually on their car insurance and over 20% on homeowners insurance in Texas. A number of these clients are business owners that have asked us to work with them on their commercial insurance. This product line extension is a natural evolution for us to meet the needs of our clients."

The company's highly trained agents have developed extensive expertise in understanding how individuals can lower the cost of their homeowners and car insurance, particularly in Texas. They will now extend that expertise to commercial insurance.
