

Shane Hmiel Heads to Homestead for Tripleheader

Shane Hmiel will be closing out the 2004 NASCAR® Season in Homestead with a triple-header; driving the TRIMSPA® No. 15 NASCAR Craftsman® Truck on Friday, the TRIMSPA No. 32 Busch® Series car on Saturday, and the No. 23 Bill Davis Racing NEXTEL® Cup car on Sunday.

Moorseville, NC, (PRWEB) November 20, 2004 - Shane Hmiel will be closing out the 2004 NASCAR® Season in Homestead with a triple-header; driving the TRIMSPA® No. 15 NASCAR Craftsman® Truck on Friday, the TRIMSPA No. 32 Busch® Series car on Saturday, and the No. 23 Bill Davis Racing NEXTEL® Cup car on Sunday.

“It should be a great weekend,” Hmiel said. “Driving in all three series should be a lot of fun. The No. 15 Billy Ballew Motorsports Chevrolet® TRIMSPA Truck is always fast and the testing I did at Homestead should help immensely. The truck race on Friday should help with the Busch car and the Cup car.”

Hmiel, who came on board with Billy Ballew in January, has made a major impression on the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series.

“I have enjoyed racing in the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series,” Hmiel said. “We’ve had a good season. I was really hoping to get into the top-10 in points for Billy Ballew Motorsports but mechanical problems plagued us during the beginning of the season and the DNF’s hurt our chances. There is a lot of competition in this series and it has been an experience I will never forget. I am happy to have my first major win in NASCAR in the No. 15 Chevrolet Silverado. It will always be the most memorable time of my career.”

“I hope to be able to come back in the future and race in the trucks again,” continued Hmiel. “I really want to thank Billy Ballew for the opportunity he gave me this season and for the great equipment he put underneath me. The team and I have really grown together this season and I will miss them. Billy and I have become good friends and I wish him the best in the 2005 season.”

The NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series race will be broadcast live Friday, November 19th at 3:30 pm. The NASCAR Busch Series season finale is Saturday, November 20th and will be televised live at 1 pm eastern on NBC. The final NASCAR Nextel Cup Series race is Sunday, November 21st and will be covered live on NBC beginning at 12:00 Noon. All three races will also be carried on radio stations affiliated with MRN and on XM Satellite Radio, Channel 144.
