

Manor Moving Sponsors a Young Table Tennis Player.

Manor Moving & Storage, a leading NY moving company today announced that it will sponsor Daniel Vila, an up and coming table tennis player for the 2005 season. The donation would go towards Vila's expenses (including travel and training,) for the year.

New York, NY (PRWEB) December 6, 2004 -- Vila, who is 14 years old, attends the Columbia Prep School in Manhattan and trains at the Manhattan Table Tennis Center. After only three years of training, under the guidance of the acclaimed veteran player and trainer, Atanda Musa, Vila's rating level shot up by 379 points, improving from 1350 to 1729.

"We are extremely excited to sponsor Daniel Vila," said Zvi Manor, CEO of Manor Moving and Storage. "As a table tennis player myself, I am fully aware of the challenges and demands of an athlete's life, and I am delighted to be able to help Daniel in his pursuit. Daniel is a brilliant kid, and we are confident that he will continue to improve and excel in the coming table tennis season."

Daniel Vila is planned to participate in numerous local and regional tournaments, and he currently trains for the upcoming 2004 Stiga North American Championships event.
