Mooresville, NC (PRWEB) December 23, 2004 -- New unwrapped gifts and cash donations poured in from community members at the recent 15th annual Stocks for Tots charity event held at the Lakeside Business Park in Mooresville, NC. Stocks for Tots, whose origin is stock car racing and its fans, was created to raise awareness of the child abuse problem in North Carolina.

Appearing at this year's event were NASCAR Nextel®, Busch® Series, and Craftsman® Truck drivers Dale Earnhardt, Jr., Rusty Wallace, Ryan Newman, Matt Borland, Buddy Baker, Kasey Kahne, Matt Kenseth, and many others.

Donations from the event benefited Stop Child Abuse Now (SCAN), a nonprofit organization dedicated to preventing physical, mental and emotional child abuse, and the gifts will be presented to children with needs.

In addition to driver appearances and autograph signings, the event hosted an auction to help raise money for the cause. TRIMSPA, in association with Braun Racing, donated replica TRIMSPA X32 die-cast toy cars and a piece of sheet metal from the #32 TRIMSPA Dodge which auctioned off for $250.

Since 1989, Stocks for Tots has raised over $350,000 and distributed nearly 30,000 Christmas toys to children in North Carolina.
