

Get In Gear at the 8th Annual Ohio Cycle World International Motorcycle Shows® Presented by Toyota Trucks

On February 1-3, 2002 the nation's oldest and largest consumer-oriented powersports show series returns to Cleveland's IX Center.

(PRWEB) January 17, 2002 -- Santa Ana, California -- January 2, 2002 -- February 1-3, 2002 the Cycle World International Motorcycle Shows® Presented by Toyota Trucks will return to Cleveland's IX Center. The nation's oldest and largest consumer-oriented powersports show series is a once-a-year gathering of new model vehicles is truly a must-see event for the whole family.

An anticipated crowd of more than 58,000 area motorcycle enthusiasts will assemble to be among the first to preview the complete 2002 model line-up of ATVs, cruisers, dirt bikes, dualsports, scooters, and sport bikes in factory showcase displays from the industry's leading manufacturers, including Aprilia, BMW, Buell, Ducati, Harley-Davidson, Honda, Kawasaki, Moto Guzzi, Suzuki, Triumph, Victory and Yamaha. Representatives from local dealerships will be on hand to answer questions and help enthusiasts determine the perfect ride for their size and experience level.

Complementing the new vehicles is an impressive aftermarket manufacturer contingent offering everything from performance parts to the latest communications hardware and apparel. Those looking to re-furbish their wardrobe or dress up their ride will be pleased to know that many of products on display are also available for on-site purchase. Show-goers are also invited to preview the season's hottest product offerings at -- The Factory, a series of showcase displays boasting parts and accessories from companies such as Arai Helmets, Autocom Communication Specialists, Bridgestone Tire Company, Castrol, ChatterBox, Dowco, Inc., Dunlop Motorcycle Tires, Dynojet Research, GIVI USA, HJC Helmets, K & N Engineering, Kendon Industries, Metzeler Motorcycle Tires, Muzzys Performance Products, Prexport, Progressive Suspension, Samson Exhaust, Shoei Helmets, Suomy Helmets, Thunder Manufacturing, Travelcade/Saddlemen, Winex Helmets and Yuasa Battery, Inc.

Starving for two-wheeled action? Hungry crowds will tame their cravings with a feast of gravity defying acrobatics performed by Finnish Trials rider Tommi Ahvala of Team Extreme. Imagine a motorcycle launching up a 16-foot vertical wall onto a 22-foot flowing indoor waterfall, and then landing on a suspended platform barely the length of the bike! This radical display is not for the weak at heart. Outside of the show, Ahvala competes and wins at professional competitions internationally throughout the year, maintaining an average world ranking in the top 3. Show-goers won't want to miss one of these stellar performances during the three-day event.

In tribute to the days of moto-past, Cycle World Magazine will host the Cycle World Classics collection, a showcase of classic, custom and vintage motorcycles of historical significance provided by participating manufacturers.

For a local twist, collectors will offer enthusiasts a glimpse of the limitless restoration and customizing possibilities available to them in a vintage motorcycle display presented by the Lake Erie Chapter of the Antique Motorcycle Club of America.

To top it all off, one lucky consumer may win a new motorcycle or ATV by visiting the Ohio show. Sponsored by American Suzuki Motor Corporation, the Official Motorcycle/ATV Giveaway offers consumers a chance to win a 2002 Katana® 600 or Eiger® 400 4x4 Automatic. Other drawings will be held throughout the show at the Product Giveaway table. In addition to great merchandise, one person has a chance to win a Bruce Brown autographed jacket from Malcolm Smith Racing compliments of Monterey Media, Inc.

Jeff D'Entremont, Show Manager of the Cycle World International Motorcycle Shows® Presented by Toyota Trucks commented: "We have worked hard all year to pull together a package of exciting new features, vehicles and exhibitors that we hope will keep them coming back for years to come."
