Baltimore, MD (PRWEB) May 11, 2016 -- CallRevu, automotive's top performing call monitoring solution, announced the recent addition of Tony Gomez to the company's executive team to continue to meet the needs of the growing workforce and expanding dealer partner demand. Tony brings a wealth of knowledge to the company with 27 years of automotive experience. Tony's accomplishments include his service in the United States Marine Corps, fulfilling the roles of General Manager and Dealer Principal for an automotive group, acting as a Senior Automotive Consultant, and operating as a Platform President. Tony's new role as C.O.O. will focus on maintaining CallRevu's renown customer service standards and its culture of customer advocacy.

Before joining Callrevu, Tony was a dealer partner of CallRevu's for almost 10 years, which uniquely positions him to provide a meaningful perspective in CallRevu's continued growth and development as a company committed to improving automotive dealers' customer touch points through the phones. Tony comments, "My ambition and drive to do more allowed me to work with almost every auto manufacturer in one capacity or another and with thousands of great people, spanning almost three decades. It's that same drive, ambition, and desire to be on a platform or stage that impacts and touches more people in an industry that I care about so much that's brought me to CallRevu. I am truly passionate about what the people at CallRevu do and the bigger vision that they serve."

Chip King, Owner and Managing Partner, had this to say about CallRevu's newest addition, "We are excited to have Tony join the team as our Chief Operating Officer. CallRevu will double in size this year, and Tony's history as Dealer Principal, Director of Operations of a large successful automotive platform, and respected industry consultant and trainer will be a perfect addition to our leadership team."
