(PRWEB) April 22, 2002 -- Bestwebsites.com.my had provided a web page at <http://www.BestWebsites.com.my/F1> for fans of Formula One an easy access to all the leading Formula One-related Websites.

Currently Websites already listed are as follows:

01. AllAboutArrows.com

A site for Arrows F1 Team fans to keep up-to-date and make comment on the performances and issues relating to the Arrows team.

If you would like to make comment on anything regarding this site, the Arrows F1 Team or F1 motorsport in general then please visit The Arrows Forum - this sites messageboard.

The publisher of this site is Huw Alban (LHS of mug shot, best mate Phil Giles is RHS). I have been 'into' F1 ever since 1997 after a bizarre set of circumstances involving the TV scheduling of the Australian Grand Prix and a video recorder. Please tell me what you think of the site and how you feel it can be improved by clicking here.

People often ask me "Why Arrows ?" The reason is that I get a kick out of seeing a smaller, less well funded team get some success and some Championship points. In the year 2000 Arrows are a rejuvenated team and one watch out for. We may be supporting the Ferrari or McLaren team of the future. - From the Website

20. MaxMcLaren.com

I have only followed Formula One since the 1998 season.

So why did I latch onto the McLaren team?

Mainly, because I am originally from New Zealand and McLaren founder, Bruce McLaren was also a New Zealander. For me, I think it is patriotic to support the McLaren team as, although they are now far removed from the team Bruce McLaren set up, they are still the closest thing, New Zealand has to a F1 team.

I like the way they are absolutely committed to winning the championship, but also the way they seem to treat their drivers. Both, at least at the beginning of the season, are given equal status. The only rule seems to be 'Don't run into each other'. I have not seen this in many of the other teams.

Some people say I only support the team because they are winning or running very close to the top. I admit, this makes it easy to support the team, but a real fan will support his or her team no matter what. If and when this test comes again, as it did in the mid nineties, I hope my support for the team will remain unchanged. - From the Website
