

Brokers Selling RV Parks Top Search Results with RVShark

A test conducted last week demonstrated that RVShark (<http://www.rvshark.com>) is a top search engine result for key phrases used by property investors shopping for rv parks, making RVShark a good place for brokers to post RV park listings.

PALO ALTO, CALIF. (PRWEB) January 11, 2003 - RVShark (<http://www.rvshark.com>) is a top search engine result for key phrases used by property investors shopping for rv parks, making RVShark a good place for brokers to post RV park listings.

In a test conducted on January 8, 2003, RVShark was a first page result for the terms "RV park for sale," "campgrounds for sale," "rv resort for sale," and "trailer parks for sale."

The test results show that RVShark is a prime place for commercial real estate brokers to list RV resorts, campgrounds, mobile home parks, and RV parks for sale. Listings may be placed at <http://www.rvshark.com>.

The test was conducted on Google, developer of the world's largest search engine. A first page search result generally means one of the first ten results, since the default number of results per page is ten. Neither RVShark nor its parent SharkPage, Inc. are affiliated with Google Inc.

RVShark currently lists RV parks for sale in eighteen US states.
