(PRWEB) October 10, 2002 -- TI AUTOMOTIVE NAMES CRAWFORD NEW VICE PRESIDENT

Rob Crawford has been named vice president of TI Automotive's Brake and Fuel Product Group, according to Rich Kolpasky, president of the company's North American operations.

Prior to his appointment, Crawford was commercial director for the company's Brake and Fuel Product Group.

Crawford joined TI Automotive in 1994 as an account manager. In 1997, he accepted a European assignment as business unit director for the United Kingdom. Two years later, he returned to the U.S. as global business director for the company's Japanese automotive customers.

Crawford holds a bachelors degree in engineering from Michigan State University. He lives in Plymouth with his wife and two sons.

TI Automotive is the world's leading supplier of fluid storage, transfer and delivery systems including brake, fuel and air conditioning applications. Based in Warren, MI, the company employs over 21,000 people at more than 130 facilities in 29 countries on six continents.
