TI AUTOMOTIVE TO SUPPLY COMPONENTS TO CHRYSLER GROUP

WARREN, Mich. — TI Automotive has won a contract to provide fuel and brake system components for a future Chrysler Group vehicle.

TI Automotive will provide the fuel tank shell, the fuel module and the fuel, brake, air conditioning and tank top lines.

The components will be manufactured at TI Automotive's plants in Ossian and Ashley, Indiana and in Reynosa, Mexico.

—The design and manufacturing expertise of TI Automotive's engineering staff was a key factor in this important win, — said Rich Kolpasky, president of the company's North American Operations. —The Chrysler Group has shown great confidence in our ability to provide top quality components for one of its vehicle lines.—

TI Automotive is the world's leading supplier of fluid storage, transfer and delivery systems including brake, fuel and air conditioning applications. Based in Warren, MI, the company employs over 21,000 people at more than 130 facilities in 29 countries on six continents. Further information about TI Automotive is available on the company's website at www.tiautomotive.com.
