Hollywood, CA (PRWEB) June 4, 2003 - Torrez Trucking was awarded with the Latin Business Association's 2003 Sol Business Award for Business of the Year under $5 million. The LBA Sol Business Awards Gala is the premier Latino business-networking event in the U.S. This black-tie event involves the "who's-who" of the Latino entrepreneurial, corporate, and political worlds. The ceremony was held May 16th, 2003 at the elegant Kodak Theatre Ballroom in Hollywood, California and was attended by approximately 1,200 guests.

"We were honored to be nominated with such an elite collection of Latin business people," said Terri Geml Vice-President of Torrez Trucking. "My father, Fernando Torrez, and partner, Andy Delgado, started the company over 20 years ago with the desire to be successful and provide quality moving services to Southern California businesses. Their commitment to customer service and to our community is what continues to make Torrez Trucking successful today," she said. "The quality of service we provide is also evident from our staff, many of whom have been with the company an average of 5-10 years."

The LBA Sol Business Awards Gala recognizes the contributions made by elite individuals, entrepreneurs, and companies with an evening of glamour and entertainment, networking, exquisite food, and Latin energy. "As recipients of this year's award, we are able to celebrate my father's entrepreneurial spirit and be recognized by our peers for our company's business contributions," Geml said.
