

Mercedes-Benz-usa.com releases a "Mercedes Benz Problem Resolution Guide" to help with rising complaints of poor vehicles and service from Mercedes Benz USA.

Mercedes-Benz-USA.com is helping consumers who have been sold lemon vehicles, or have been poorly treated by Mercedes Benz. If you have problems with a vehicle, dealership, or Mercedes Benz, you need the "MercedesBenz Problem Resolution Guide".

(PRWEB) February 4, 2004 --Mercedes-Benz-usa.com is proud to announce the release of the "Mercedes Benz Problem Resolution Guide". This packet explains the highly effective & simple ways you can use to ensure Mercedes Benz provides you with satisfaction. Whether you are looking for help with minor repair issues, or your car is a complete Lemon and you want out of it! -Your answers are at www.Mercedes-Benz-usa.com.

Visit the website and read through the ownership experiences that have been posted on not only the vehicles, but service and repairs. You'll find stories of MB employees threatening customer's lives, car fires, accidents due to poor repairs, and unbelievable safety issues.

The arrogance Mercedes Benz takes to consumers is astounding. The most common statement is about the attitude of the employees and representatives. Prior to purchase they are the most helpful and friendly people one could ask for. However, when even minor things start going wrong, a whole new side of Mercedes Benz is shown - it's true colors..
