

Torrez Trucking Honored as 2004 Small Business of the Year

Estrella Award honors Hispanic-owned Orange County based business that has demonstrated excellent community citizenship and involvement.

Anaheim, CA (PRWEB) April 29, 2004 - Torrez Trucking was honored with The Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Orange County's Award for 2004 Small Business of the Year. The Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Orange County's 11th Annual Estrella Awards Dinner recognized Southern California stars and showcased the leadership of Orange County's business community. The event was held April 17th, 2004 in the Grand Ballroom of the popular Disneyland Hotel located in the Anaheim Disneyland Resort.

Torrez Trucking has been based in Orange County since we began operations over 22 years ago," said Fernando Torrez co-founder and CEO of Torrez Trucking. "It is always an honor to be recognized as a successful small business. However, this award also represents our continued involvement in the Orange County community together with important organizations like the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Orange County." Torrez added.

The Honorees also included Arte Moreno, owner of the Anaheim Angels, Michael Carona, Sheriff of Orange County, and several other individuals and businesses recognized by the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Orange County as influential in the Orange County community. Award recipients were also recognized with a letter of commendation from the Governor of California, Arnold Schwarzenegger, as well as letters from several other federal, state, and local political officials. "We are very proud to be honored by the Hispanic Chamber," said Terri Geml Vice-President of Torrez Trucking. "Our association with the Hispanic Chamber has allowed us to remain successful, knowledgeable, and competitive as a Hispanic-owned small business. The Estrella Awards Event allows the Honorees to share the hard work and accomplishments with our peers, families, and friends." Geml concluded.
