

Vamoose Bus Beefs up Service to ‘March For Our Lives’ and ‘Cherry Blossom Festival’ events in DC

Bus booking data predicts a robust increase in travel activity to the Washington, DC area.

NEW YORK (PRWEB) March 17, 2018 -- Vamoose Bus, an intercity bus company serving NYC and the DC area, estimates that travel activity in the New York City – Washington, DC corridor is expected to reach a high-peak on the fourth weekend of March 2018. The March For Our Lives rally, which will be held in Washington, DC on Saturday, March 24, 2018, and the annual Cherry Blossom Festival, which is scheduled to kick off on the same day, are expected to draw millions of attendees.

“As we are nearing the day of these events, we’re noticing a high volume of bus tickets sold,” said Fred Lastres, Director of Operations at Vamoose Bus. “Booking data suggest that the number of travelers who will flock to the Washington, DC area may reach a record level.”

Lastres added that Vamoose Bus is monitoring the flow of bus reservations, and will continue to expand the bus schedules to accommodate the stream of travelers heading to DC area to participate in the respective events.
