PAOLI, Pa. (April 23th, 2019) – With sales of the new 2019 Ford Ranger off to a healthy start, given its strong demand and transaction prices, AmericanTrucks’ Justin Dugan created this comparison video to pose the question, “Which would you guys rather prefer given the same amount of money: a lightly used F-150 or a brand-new Ranger?”

Given the response from Justin’s Ranger Review video, he decided to park the two trucks side-by-side for a battle royale. Justin provides all the stats from approach and departure angles to capacities, talking pros and cons, as well as asking viewers, “Which one of these two trucks is getting your money?”

“With the return of the Ranger, a lot of people rejoiced... that is until they saw the price tag. The reaction we saw is that for the same amount of money, an overwhelming number of truck enthusiasts would prefer a slightly used F150 instead.” –Justin Dugan
