Contributing to the growth seen during 2011 was the addition of several industry leading customers which included The Scotts Company, a lawn and garden company, Owens Corning, insulation and building material manufacturer, Green Bay Packaging, producer of paperboard packaging, Cott Beverage, a retailer brand beverage company, Niagara Bottling, bottled water corporation, and Tekni-Plex, packaging and tubing material manufacturer.

“We are very proud to be able to continue our track record of annual growth. The recession has been hard on many companies. Our results are a direct reflection of our attitude to not accept the recession as an excuse for poor effort,” said Ben Gase, president and chief executive officer of R2 Logistics. “We’re here to compete, not only with fair pricing, but by offering premier customer service that is unmatched in the 3PL market. We expect 2012 to show similar results.”
