

Montana Makes RVShark (www.rvshark.com)

RVShark (www.rvshark.com) began coverage of Montana last week to accommodate its growing collection of raw, RVer-based RV park reviews. RVShark now has reviews covering RV parks in 29 U.S. states.

PALO ALTO, CA (PRWEB) June 21, 2004 -- RVShark (www.rvshark.com) began coverage of Montana last week to accommodate its growing collection of candid, RVer-based RV park reviews.

The first Montana RV park reviewed on RVShark is the Alder/Virginia City KOA. The facility is located approximately 100 miles northwest of Yellowstone National Park.

A state is added to RVShark when necessary to accommodate a new review. A review is published only after it been thoroughly researched and validated. RVShark discards well over half of all incoming reviews as insufficient or inauthentic.

Whether scathing or glowing, reviews submitted to RVShark that are deemed sincere are published. RVShark's editorial and submission guidelines are posted on its website, at <http://www.rvshark.com/about.htm>.

RVShark now has reviews covering RV parks in 29 U.S. states. The website also covers RV parks in Mexico. Most of RVShark's reviews concern parks located in Florida and Texas. Last month, RVShark added Wisconsin.

Neither RVShark nor its parent SharkPage is affiliated with Kampgrounds of America, Inc.

About RVShark

RVShark (www.rvshark.com), the online RV publication, features raw reviews of RV parks based on real RVers' experiences. Launched in August 2001, the RVShark website also includes an RV parks for sale section and RV for sale listings. RVShark is available free of charge on the Internet at www.rvshark.com. RVShark is owned by SharkPage, a privately held company based in Palo Alto, California. RVShark and SharkPage are trademarks of SharkPage.
