These Folding Electric Bikes are 100% compliant with all European and UK laws classing them as pedal cycles, therefore the rider does not require a license, tax, insurance or helmet as long as they are at least 14 years old, to be used on the public road.

The FOLDe comes with lights, a horn, brake lights, front basket, rear top-box and even a seven piece tool kit. All this is just Â£299 from Electric Bikes Direct.

They are a superb means of 'green' transport, cost just a few pence to charge, give you some exercise and get some fresh air.
