Automotive expert & Car Clinic host, Bobby Likis shares with "Bobby Likis Car Clinic" listeners and viewers his top twelve 4-wheeled predictions for 2012.

(PRWEB) January 12, 2012 -- Running the gamut on the automotive lifestyle continuum from the U.S. increasing its already significant fuel exports to what technologies General Motors, Ford, Honda, Mazda and NASCAR will exploit, Likis's predictions are based on 40 years in the automotive industry; exhaustive research on the current state of the industry; frequent interviews with industry leadership, marketing and development executives; and one-on-one conversations with "Bobby Likis Car Clinic" listeners and viewers about their preferences and buying habits.

Says Likis, "Ultimately, two forces are at work: marketplace and legislation. Sometimes, they fluidly converge, but more often it's a case of one influencing the other." Likis continues, "One thing's for sure: 'current' becomes 'past' at exponential acceleration."
