

HellaciousRiders.com is Pleased to Announce the Opening of Our 1st Member Store SteadlyQuikWheels.com

Mike Stead the owner of steadlyquikwheels.com feature such items as the Limited Edition official collectors souvenir Harley Love Ride'56 Ford Delivery Hotwheel. It is custom Pearl Orange, falls on U.S. Goodyear rubber tires & on Flaming packaging with the official "Harley Love Ride"emblem on its front. A true AMERICAN original... "Longmay we ride".

(PRWEB) November 3, 2004 -- Every one of these sold sends $1.00 to The Love Ride Charity that helps MDA & other organizations.

Since 1984, every November 20,000 motorcycles caravan to raise funds for numerous charities from Harley-Davidson of Glendale to a concert, trade show, and a barbeque at Castaic Lake, California.

Mike is one of only a handful of miniature car designers that has received a license from Mattel to design his custom hotwheels. SteadlyQuikWheels.com features 16 different hotwheels currently for sale, some that are retired with very limited quantities left.

Mike also puts out a line of Limited Edition Johnny Lightning cars.

Mike would love to meet you at the upcoming, Glendale Love Ride, Sunday the 14th Nov. he will be there from 7:00 am on to when ever it's finished...see ya then. Tell him Hriders.com sent you.

Mike says that it would be his pleasure, at your request to sign any of the 11 different die-cast toy cars that he has designed at no extra cost to the customer.
