

Photographs from the 1986 Fall Martinsville NASCAR Events Now Online

Woodstock, Illinois (August 22, 2010) - The John Walczak Collection has added another set of NASCAR racing photographs to The Crittenden Automotive Library. This set is about 200 pictures from the 1989 Goody's 500 and 1989 Nationwide 150.

The Goody's 500 was a NASCAR Winston Cup race held on September 21, 1989 at Martinsville Speedway in Virginia. The Winston Cup would eventually become today's NASCAR Sprint Cup.

The Nationwide 150 was a NASCAR Busch Late Model Sportsman Series race held earlier in the same day at the same track. The Busch Late Model Sportsman Series would eventually become today's Nationwide Series.

The Nationwide 150 was won by Tommy Houston and the Goody's 500 was won by Rusty Wallace. In addition to NASCAR legends Richard Petty, Dale Earnhardt, and Bill Elliott, as well as fan favorites Tim Richmond, Dave Marcis, Harry Gant, and Alan Kulwicki. In addition to the track action, this set includes pictures from the pits. The Nationwide 150 photographs include pictures of Davey Allison racing before he became a full-time Winston Cup driver.

The pictures from Martinsville are in addition to over 150 pictures of 1986 NASCAR action already in The Crittenden Automotive Library from the Champion Spark Plug 400 earlier in the season. Results from the race is online now in the Goody's 500 section of The Crittenden Automotive Library at: <http://www.carsandracingstuff.com/library/g/goodys500.php>
