TNT Super Series returns to Cayuga Dragway for three races including 2011 Race of Champions

Bieda's Powersports presents final Canadian double event of the season!

CAYUGA, ONTARIO (August 30, 2011) Known for its double weekends of intense competition and solid car counts, the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series is heading back to the Cayuga Dragway at Toronto Motorsports Park this weekend for the final "Canadian" stop on the 2011 tour.

The double weekend, presented by Bieda's Powersports, promises some of the best sportsman racing in the country with dozens of teams shooting for the title of 2011 TNT Super Series Champion.

Last year's Labor Day weekend winners, Pete Maduri Jr and Bill Elekes, will be there - both looking to take out current TNTSS championship points leader Dave Surmatchewski. Dave has a very good track record at Cayuga, with four of his five TNTSS victories happening at the fabled 1/4 mile facility.

Highlighting the weekend event will be Saturday night's Trailer Shop / ERD TNTSS Race of Champions - the first specialty race of its kind for the TNTSS competitors. Having to earn your way in by winning an event, the ROC will determine the best of the best in 10.90 heads-up drag racing.

Joining the TNTSS this weekend will be the very popular Can Am Stock / Super Stock Series and the new DSE Bracket Racing Series with each series having complete races on both Saturday and Sunday.

Gates open at 4pm Friday for weekend camping. The first of two qualifying sessions is 11am both days with eliminations to follow. The first round in The Trailer Shop / ERD Race of Champions is set for 6pm Saturday and will finish under the lights.
